

Adams County Farm Market Trail

Adams County, Pennsylvania is widely known for its Civil War history, but the area is full of so many rich and diverse experiences. The Adams County countryside is a thriving agricultural landscape – home to countless family-owned farms and many roadside farm markets. These countryside markets not only make the area’s fresh, seasonal produce accessible, they also provide authentic experiences that give visitors a glimpse at farm life.

Our countryside has so many markets, in fact, that we’ve rounded up a list of them here for you. Take a look at the list below, grab a notebook and map out your very own Adams County market trail!

Boyer Nurseries & Orchards

Boyer Nurseries & Orchards is a fifth-generation family owned and operated nursery and market, offering a variety of products and experiences. Visit the farm market for fresh produce, local pottery, fresh apple cider and more. Browse the large selection of lush landscaping plants and garden accessories. Try out the pick-your-own experiences — cherries, blueberries and apples in season — or challenge yourself in the hedge maze year round. When you're all done, relax at Boyer Cellars, their wine and hard cider tasting room.

Stoney Point Farm Market

Welcome to Stoney Point Farm Market, a family-owned and operated farm market in the heart of Adam's County. We have been committed to delivering farm-fresh produce and homemade goods to our community for over 85 years. At Stoney Point, we take great pride in our commitment to quality, and the care we put into every product we offer. We believe in fostering a solid relationship with our customers, providing nourishment and a gathering place for our community. Visit us and experience a taste of the countryside right here at Stoney Point Farm Market.

At Stoney Point Farm Market, we put our heart and soul into delivering the freshest and highest quality meats and goods to your table. We're not just a business but a family tradition spanning three generations. Our rural wisdom, honed over years of dedication to our land and livestock, is the cornerstone of our commitment to quality. Our expert butchers handcraft each cut to ensure excellence, demonstrating a blend of tradition and skill that makes us proud. As a customer at Stoney Point Farm Market, you become a part of our family tradition, and we are dedicated to offering you nothing but the best.

Our market is open year-round and offers a variety of seasonal produce that changes with the harvest. We also offer a wide selection of homemade goods, such as jams, pickles, and baked goods. Our products are all made with love and care, using only the freshest ingredients from our farm and other local sources.

For those of you who have never shopped with us, we welcome your visit. Our farmers' market is conveniently located 1.5 miles southwest of Littlestown, Pennsylvania, on Route 194 South – just one mile north of the Pennsylvania/Maryland border.

The Harvest Barn Country Market

Step inside the gorgeous, rustic barn for an amazing selection of goods and old fashioned charm. The Harvest Barn offers local, in-season produce and a large selection of locally-sourced meat and dairy. For those with a sweet tooth, check out the retro candy display, decadent baked goods, local jams and honey. And while you're there, browse the selection of candles, soaps and home décor.

Hollabaugh Bros. Inc. Fruit Farm and Market

Don't miss Hollabaugh Bros. Fruit Farm & Market, a 4,500-square-foot retail farm market and 500-acre working family farm. In addition to the amazing seasonal produce available, check out their house-made baked goods, local foods and ice cream, artisan goods, gift items and more. Hollabaugh's offers fun, family-friendly events and festivals throughout the year, including cooking, crafting, canning classes, farm tours, and pick-your-own blueberries, flowers and apples. Don't leave without trying their famous apple cider doughnut milkshake!

The Lion Potter is first, an amazing pottery shop, but after visiting, you'll see that it is so much more. Their selection of vibrant, handcrafted pottery will draw you in, but the unique atmosphere and selection of seasonal produce will make you linger. Get a taste of their tree-ripened peaches, heirloom tomatoes, fresh pulled corn and crisp apples in season, and be sure to pick out a piece of pottery to take home, too.

McDannell's Fruit Farm & Market

McDannell's Fruit Farm & Market is family owned and operated and offers patrons a variety of fresh produce grown on their farm – apples, peaches, nectarines, plums, apricots, sweet cherries, sweet corn and a variety of vegetables. They also carry a variety of specialty canned items and fresh baked goods, including amazing homemade pies!

Oyler's Organic Farms & Market

Oyler's Organic Farms & Market is your one-stop shop for all things organic. Visit the sixth-generation family-owned farm and market for certified organic peaches and apples during the summer and fall, and pastured raised meats, organic vegetables, organic dairy, organic flour and nuts, and other products available year-round. They host several amazing farm events throughout the year like breakfast on the farm and their popular summer harvest dinner.

Historic Round Barn and Farm Market

Visit the Historic Round Barn and Farm Market for a wide selection of home-grown and local fresh fruits and vegetables. Be sure to snap a few photos of the barn while you're there — it is one of only a handful of round barns surviving today. When you're done browsing the market, head right across the street to Thirsty Farmer Brew Works, a family farm brewery serving unique small batch brews

Sandoe's Fruit Market

Sandoe's works with more than 200 local growers to ensure they're providing the freshest and finest selection of fruits and vegetables at their market. And while fresh produce is their specialty, be sure to also check out their selection of fresh flowers, jams, baked goods and hand-dipped ice cream!

Farmers' Markets

Adams County is home to two different open-air farmers' markets May through October – the Adams County Farmers' Market, held Thursdays and Saturdays at the Gettysburg Transit Center, and the Gettysburg Farmers' Market, held Saturdays in historic Lincoln Square in downtown Gettysburg. Both offer an exceptional selection of seasonal produce, meat, dairy, and specialty food products from local vendors.

Happy market traveling!
